Mr. John Ritter died ast Saturday night at his residence, in Chesterfield county. He had been sick only a few days, and his death was unexpected. His remains were interred yesterday af-E. T. Dadmun preached at West

Rev. E. T. Dadmun preached at West End Sunday morning from the text: "Render, therefore, unto Caesar the things which be Ceasar's, and unto God the things which be God's." In the course of his sermon he took occasion to men-tion some of the many blessings which our government bestows, and of which the nations in ancient times knew nothour government bestows, and of which the nations in ancient times knew noth-ing. He then enforced the duty of pay-ing taxes, of patriotism, of respect for law, referring at this point to the late af-fair at Rosnoke, which had caused such "widespread comment and brought shame to Witching" for many though he to Virginia's fair name," though he added that he did not believe the best people of Roanoke sympathized with the mab; he only regretted that they had not been more courageous in defence of

The speaker took accasion to speak in high terms of President Cleveland as a man of honest purpose and great courage and independence, and added that "we were now represented by a man (who fice and name he would not give) whose life was notoriously impure." The ser-mon was highly commended by those Rev. John Jasper, the astronomical preacher, returned yesterday afternoon from Chesterfield county, where he preached Sunday, at Mount Nebo church, near Bon Air, his famous sermon on "The Sun Do Move," to a tremendous crowd, Sun Do Move," to a fremendous crowd, among whom were many white persons. A meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held yesterday afternoon at Meade-Memorial church. A branch of this order was organized in this city last year, and an effort is now being made to revive interest in the work. Yesterday was court day at Powhatan Courthouse, and Colonel G. K. Macon, of this city, and Hon. W. W. Baker, of Chesterfield, the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates from this district, went up to speak to the people, Hon. R. C. Kent, Democratic candi-date for Lieutenant-Governor, is expected to speak in this city on October 14th.

The Populists of this district will meet to-day at Hallsboro, in Chesterfield county, to nominate two candidates for the House of Delegates.

It is thought that Carter H. Harrison, recently superintendent of the public schools of Powhatan, and John B. Watkins, of Chesterfield, will be the nomi-mees.

Mr. Colon Gregory, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at his brother's home, in Chesterfield, is steadily improving, and is now able to sit up in bed. Miss Lena Atkinson, Miss Beulah Atkinson, and Mr. Thomas Atkinson, of Chesterfield, left Saturday for the World's Fair, and will return via Niagara Falls and several of the principal Northern parcel and package express business to Mr. W. E. Brown. The directors of the Methodist Sunday-

School Union will meet at Central church o-night at 8 o'clock.
